Procedures Used in Compiling the Index

Subject words and phrases have been selected as index terms, on the basis of what appears to be the current common usage in the literature itself.

Multiple listings of subjects have been preferred to the use of cross-references.

Subject words and phrases, whether person, place, or thing, have been indicated by use of all capital letters.

Titles of all media reviewed, abstracted, annotated, or discussed have been indicated by use of italics.

Exact titles of all articles and regular features of School Media Quarterly have been indicated by use of quotation marks.

An r in parentheses following a page reference indicates that a medium by that person, of that title, or about that subject has been reviewed on those pages.

An a in parentheses following a page reference indicates that a medium by that person, of that title, or about that subject has been annotated on those pages.

An ab in parentheses following a page reference indicates that a medium by that person, of that title, or about that subject has been abstracted on those pages.

Corporate names have been indexed under the common form of the name as it normally appears in print (not in inverted form). Acronyms and initialisms are recorded as such, and they are filed as words.

BOOKS
for the not-so-gentle reader.

Let's face it.
Kids are rough on books.

So rough, in fact, that the average publisher's edition will withstand the abuse of only twenty readers. Bound To Stay Bound books, on the other hand, will last a minimum of 100 circulations. Because Bound To Stay Bound binds books for not-so-gentle young readers, and features attractive, illustrated covers and rugged LBI Standard Library Bindings.

BTSB books are gentle on library budgets, too, costing as little as 5¢ per reader. And with over 24,000 titles, more than one million volumes, in stock at all times, most orders can be filled and shipped in a matter of days.

Send today for our free 1978 General Catalog and Service Brochure.
